

Feed The Children Hong Kong is honored to have
Mr. Yves Sauboua

as host of its Wine Tasting Event again. Proceeds will help Sichuan Quake Victims.

Mr. Sauboua is a French National who grew up in Margaux, France. His work with world-renowned chefs such as Mr. Pierre Troisgros, Mr. Michel Troisgros, Mr. Bernard Loiseau and Mr. Alain Ducasse, as well as prominent wineries, private dining clubs and 5-star hotels, has provided him a 20-year track record in the food and wine industry.

Having been associated with the Ritz Carlton Buckhead Hotel in Atlanta, Georgia as Sommelier/Wine Director, the Le Meridien Hotel in London as Restaurant Manager/Wine Buyer, and the Chalk Hill Winery in California as Estate Sommelier/Goodwill Ambassador has given Mr. Sauboua an exceptional background in the promotional and educational aspects of the wine industry.

Mr. Sauboua helped establish the Sommeliers' Club of Great Britain and was its Chairman for 5 years. In 1994, he was named Sommelier of the Year by the Sunday Telegraph in London, and over the years he has won several food and wine competitions.

Although Mr. Sauboua is a sophisticated and polished wine steward, it is his warmth and down-to-earth approach to business and friends that sets him apart. Guests are charmed by the inimitable way he guides them through the enjoyment of good food and wine with interesting conversation. For further details, please access a search engine by typing in yves sauboua, sommelier.
